LLOYD'S STUDENT RESEARCH PAPER COMPETITION - 3.0 (LRPC)

INTIMATION OF ACCEPTANCE OF ABSTRACT

Saturday, 31st Oct. 2026

Dear Student,

We are glad to receive your participation & submission of Abstract in the LRPC. Authors are invited to submit original manuscripts. The research papers shall be evaluated by a duly constituted panel on the basis of originality and novelty of the research; Quality and depth of legal research; Critical and analytical approach; Clarity and coherence of arguments; Relevance and contemporary significance of the chosen subject; Use of appropriate legal authorities and sources; and Compliance with prescribed academic and citation standards.

Detailed Submission Guidelines are attached with the mail and you need to take particular note of the following requirements:

1. Word Limit: The research paper should normally be between 5,000–6,000 words, including footnotes. Papers exceeding this limit may be considered where justified.
2. Abstract: The abstract must remain exactly the same as the one submitted and accepted. No changes will be permitted.
3. Keywords: 5–6 relevant keywords must be provided.
4. Formatting: The manuscript must follow the prescribed formatting requirements, including Times New Roman, 12-point font for the main text, 14-point font for headings, 1.5 line spacing and justified alignment.
5. Citation Style: All citations and references must strictly follow OSCOLA (5th Edition). PDF of the OSCOLA Referencing Style is being attached with this email.
6. Originality and Plagiarism: The plagiarism percentage must not exceed 10%. A Turnitin plagiarism report is mandatory.
7. AI Declaration: The AI-generated content must not exceed 5%. Participants must submit the Turnitin AI Report along with the manuscript and include the prescribed AI declaration in the paper.
