

CALL FOR CLIENTS

Dear Parent / Student,

Greetings from Lloyd Law College

We are excited to announce that Lloyd Law College will host the India Rounds of the Brown Mosten International Client Consultation Competition (ICCC) 2025, scheduled from 14th to 16th February 2025. The ICCC is a highly prestigious global event and stands as the top competition in client-lawyer consultation skills worldwide.

This year's theme: Consumer & Contract Law provides participants with an unparalleled opportunity to explore real-world challenges in these vital legal domains. The winning team from the India Rounds will earn the honour of representing the country in the International Rounds at the University of Glasgow, Scotland, from 8th to 12th April 2025.

Eligibility :: Open to all the students of Lloyd Law College and Lloyd School of Law.

Roles and Responsibility :: CLIENT

The Clients are responsible for presenting the legal issue clearly, outlining their objectives, and providing relevant documents. The client should respond openly to legal questions, helping students gather the necessary information. Maintaining professionalism, acknowledging any limitations in knowledge, and actively participating in the discussion are essential. Their involvement helps students hone their consultation and advisory skills in a real-world context. The students will be trained by the organizing committee as a client and further each client is expected to keep confidentiality of the problem till the end of the competition.

Benefits :: Certificate of Appreciation.

Networking amongst various legal professionals and participants.

Application Form :: <https://forms.gle/Fu3pmzCB8BS3q4SW8>

NOTE :

1. Anyone who volunteers to be a client for BM ICCC cannot serve as a volunteer for other events happening around the same time, such as Catalyst.
2. Anyone who is selected as a volunteer for BMICCC isn't eligible to apply as a client.
3. Last date for application is Jan. 24, 2025.
