Dear Parent / Student,

Greetings from Lloyd-Corporate Law Practice Center!

Modern legal practice increasingly demands professionals who understand corporate distress, restructuring, insolvency resolution and commercial decision-making. The Insolvency and Bankruptcy Code, 2016 has transformed the legal and financial landscape of India by introducing a time-bound insolvency resolution framework requiring lawyers to possess not only legal acumen but also commercial awareness, strategic thinking and practical problem-solving abilities. The Lloyd Corporate Insolvency Practice Competition has been conceived to bridge the gap between classroom learning and professional insolvency practice through a structured experiential learning programme.

Lloyd – Corporate Insolvency Practice Competition -L-CIPC ::

"The life of the law has not been logic, it has been experience."

The Lloyd Corporate Insolvency Practice Competition (hereinafter referred to as "L-CIPC") is organised by Lloyd Law College in collaboration with the Real Estate, Law and Accreditation Council (RELAC) under the aegis of the Corporate Law Practice Centre (CLPC). Conceived as a professional skill development programme-cum-competition, the L-CIPC seeks to cultivate, develop, enhance and reward practical knowledge, professional competence and experiential learning in the field of corporate insolvency law. Through a structured simulation of the Corporate Insolvency Resolution Process under the Insolvency and Bankruptcy Code, 2016, the Competition enables Participants to experience insolvency practice from client consultation and commencement of proceedings to corporate insolvency resolution, commercial decision-making and approval of a Resolution Plan, thereby bridging the gap between classroom learning and contemporary corporate legal practice.

PREAMBLE ::

An intra-college professional practice competition designed to cultivate, develop and enhance practical knowledge and professional skills relating to the Insolvency and Bankruptcy Code, 2016 by simulating the complete lifecycle of a Corporate Insolvency Resolution Process.

AIMS AND OBJECTIVE ::

i. To familiarise students with the Insolvency and Bankruptcy Code, 2016.
ii. To develop practical drafting skills relating to insolvency proceedings.
iii. To understand the functioning of the National Company Law Tribunal.
