Thur.-16-Feb.-2025

Dear Parent/Student,

Greetings from Lloyd academic community!

The performance of Lloyd Law College and Lloyd School of Law have been exceptional in International and National Moot Court Competitions conducted across the globe. We have been consistently delivering outstanding results in reputed Moot Court Competitions. It is extremely important for us to maintain this legacy which has been acquired through dedication and hard work. Moreover, keeping in view the need to give a chance to each and every student of the lawschool in an unbiased manner, we are conducting OCSR in order to decide the composition of the teams which shall participate in the 17th Frankfurt Investment Arbitration Moot Competition, 2025. The Lloyd Open Challenger & Selection Rounds (OCSR) shall be conducted to form the teams that shall represent Lloyd in this moot. It is scheduled to be conducted on the Saturday 08 Feb. 2025.

Frankfurt Investment Arbitration Moot Court ::

The Frankfurt Investment Arbitration Moot Court is the oldest and most prestigious student competition in the area of investment protection law. Its focus is on the oral presentation of legal arguments before an arbitral tribunal composed of specialists in the field during a one-week finalevent, the National rounds of which take place in March of and the International rounds take place in Germany in June, every year. The Frankfurt Investment Arbitration Moot Court is unique in that it combines the law of investment protection, one of the most modern and fastest developing areas of international law, with the history of international law and of international trade.
